

Perfect Summer Day

We love the long, hot days of summer! They're a perfect time to create great memories that last a lifetime with the person you love. Let's get things warmed up by reminiscing about your carefree summer days as a kid.

Childhood Memories

What was your idea of a perfect summer day?
What was your ultimate treat to eat in the summer?
What game did the kids on your street play?

Our First Memories Together

What first caught your eye about your spouse?
What was one of your favorite first dates?
What is your favorite anniversary memory?

Re-creating Memories

Pick one of your or your spouse's favorite childhood memories and spend a perfect summer day together re-creating it! [Choose your favorite activity, your favorite food, and/or your favorite place and go make some new memories together.]

HOT SUMMER NIGHT

Grab some dinner and decide how you want to spend the evening together. Do you want to grab a blanket and gaze up at the stars? Light a bonfire and make some S'mores? Or take a moonlight swim?

Midsummer nights were originally called "honey moons."

What is your favorite memory from your honeymoon?

If you could take a honeymoon today, where would you go?

Start dreaming tonight about making a lasting memory on your next anniversary.

Memories of Us

What funny memory still makes you laugh out loud?

What is your best memory from this summer so far?

What can we do to make each other's worlds better?

Don't let this summer end before promising to keep creating special memories together.

This year, let's make sure we...

Don't ever forget that I...
